

Cheryl Wicks grew up in Kentucky and graduated from Georgetown College with a Bachelors in Psychology in 2002. Cheryl began working in the I/DD field in 2001. After two years of working for an agency in Kentucky, Cheryl followed her heart (and future husband) to Colorado. Once in Colorado, Cheryl started working with Mosaic as a direct care associate in 2003. She quickly advanced into various roles within the local agency and in 2013, moved to Colorado Springs to become the Executive Director. Cheryl stays active by reading, traveling, hiking, biking and raising her three children along side her husband, Mike.
