

Tara Kiene is the President/CEO at Community Connections, Inc. in Durango, Colorado, where she has fought for full social inclusion for children and adults with intellectual disabilities since 2001. Tara received a BA in Religion at Centenary College of Louisiana and a Master of Theological Studies degree at Southern Methodist University, neither of which have much relevance in her current professional life. Her lifelong passion for social justice has led her to intense study of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion and a commitment to actively dismantling systems of oppression in her community. In her spare time, she writes very silly stories, does crafts, belly dances, sings and plays her ukulele.
